

THE IMPORTANT PART OF CULTURAL HERITAGE OCCUPIES IN THE LIFE OF A NATION AND IT'S SANCTIONING OF THE UNIVERSAL DECLARATION OF HUMAN RIGHTS

Erjona Hasa

Faculty of Education Sciences, University of Elbasan "Aleksander Xhuvani", Elbasan, Albania,
Email: erjona@gmail.com

Abstract

The cultural and natural heritage is one of the most precious treasures of our world and the artistic tradition created by man. It dedicates of recognition and popularization of tradition and highest values created by nature and mankind in years. The cultural heritage is intertwined in single human values and creates natural world to those who are in Albania. Therefore, becomes tangible capital importance of recognizing the value of this cultural historical, perspective geographic and environmental. The cultural heritage consists of items such as: monuments, groups of buildings and facilities sites. Those are important to this study because they provide a concrete basis for ideas and can make them available. The familiarity with the works of art and monuments of nature is an important part of that generation of one another as follow a boundless wealth and values of human identity. The cultural heritage has two basic divisions: material and spiritual heritage. Cultural heritage is an artistic and cultural production and appreciated only by select time. An important part of it is the natural heritage. The aim of this study is consists of promotion of the wider educational activities related to its historical values. This study is selected to preserve the cultural heritage monuments effects of natural phenomena and to promote legal improvements The methodology used in this study is to research the natural and international legislation targeting legal unification with European Union countries and bringing the high test standards governing the relationship between the legislative and state monuments.

Keyword: national identity, monuments, spiritual heritage