Abstract

One phenomenon that has recently begun to develop even in Albania, is that of coexistence distinguished from marriage. Institute Of Coexistence is very ancient. Mergers man with woman encountered to European Paleolithic hunters, but there is a lack of social and economic convincing, about the nature of these monogamous, polygamous relationships. According to our law, marriage and family, are protected in a special way from the state's law. In this way the bonds of marriage and divorce get solution through the law. Existing differences between the regime of the family, (more uxorio) coexistence, homosexual relationships, are taken in consideration by the Italian Parliament, which since on 8 February 1994 took a resolution for equality of the rights of homosexuals, in which there are not obstacles imposed for marriage of Homosexual Couples guaranteed full rights as in the case of a customary marriage.
