

SOCIAL IN THE CONTEXT OF CRIME IN ALBANIA

Zyhra Gripshi

University "Alexander Xhuvani", Faculty of Educational Sciences, Department of Sociology,
Elbasan, Albania, Email: gripshi@zyrayahoo.com

Abstract

The reason why i chose this theme is the concern that overtakes us all face the spread of the phenomenon of crime are encountered every day in the news up to the most extreme forms, murder, crime, especially violence. Domestic crime is one of the most inhuman crime behaviors that deviate from the norm of society, especially crime against the female sex, the sex ndja inherits humanity, that keeps our kind life, nourishes and enhances, educates and protects. And how not to revolt and bitterness of these antisocial actions where coexistence with is and will remain impossible. The method i used for this topic is qualitative methods, coupled with instruments in the form of interviews. Sampling was deliberate with key people, who know the world of crime. Drafting the interview was conducted in such a form that found the prevalence, forms and possibilities of eliminating crime. This study except that social workers will be present to have a clear picture of the criminality in the social context, it will be presented in the context of psychological and can also be used by psychologists to understand clearly more problematic in terms of psycho-social.

Keywords: crime, victim, the family, society, youth criminality